Arraignment of Attempt Auto Theft Suspects

On March 5, 2013 before Magistrate Clement Waldmann of the 52-4 District Court in Troy, suspects Devonte Javon Tucker, 18-years-old and Ted Bendo Oliver-Price, 19-years-old; both from Detroit were arraigned on the charge of “Attempt Unauthorized Driving Away of Auto” (UDAA). Below is a reprint of the incident reported on the March 6, 2013 Media Crime Report. Tucker’s bond was set at $10,000 or cash surety and Oliver-Price’s bond was set at $20,000 or cash surety.

The charge is 2 ½ year felony. Both will have preliminary exam hearings before Judge William E. Bolle of the 52-4 District court on March 11, 2013.

Charles Schwab, 305 W Big Beaver, 3/4/13, 5:36 pm: Troy Officers were dispatched to the area when employees reported seeing two young men, dressed in black, attempting to break into a vehicle in the parking lot. When officers arrived in the area the suspects began running toward I-75, hopping a fence and attempting to cross the freeway. A Troy Officer jumped the fence bordering the freeway and spotted one of the suspects. The Officer took the suspect into custody without incident. A lengthy search for the second suspect ensued with help from Clawson Police Officers and a Bloomfield Township Officer and his K-9 partner. The second subject was eventually apprehended near Industrial Row and Coolidge. On 3/5/13, both Detroit residents, ages 18 and 19 respectively, were arraigned on charges of “Attempted Auto Theft.” 13-6861
